

Brianna Jones

I'm grateful to have served on the WWF Board in the past and for the opportunity to continue the work to conserve and enhance Wyoming's wildlife and wild places. As a Wyoming native, I'm passionate about WWF as a moderate, sensible, and science-driven voice for wildlife and public lands. WWF plays an important role as Wyoming navigates the pressures of a changing world and the implications for wildlife. I'm eager to continue to build and guide this federation and would appreciate your support to continue as a board member.
